The style of this luxury home is contemporary with an industrial touch. Its architecture challenges gravity as the first floor seems to be floating with a very fine support.

This luxury villa in Benahavis offers maximum accommodation with the opportunity to customize to it to your personal taste. It has been designed by a reputable Costa del Sol developer with over 25 years of experience. Designed for your comfort and leisure, using the latest techniques to have an ecological and low maintenance building this brand new accommodation has a south facing orientation and stunning sea views!

Every detail has been carefully thought of in the process of creation and design. Double height entrance hall, separated laundry area, sliding floor or ceiling doors to access your terraces and garden, large open plan living - everything to create modern essence and maximize abundant natural light.
