Steps take you up to the wrap around terrace overlooking the pool and mature gardens. You enter into a extremely spacious lounge with a wonderful cosey fire place leading you through to a separate dining area with laundry room which opens into the very well equipped kitchen with a great amount of space giving you a lot of freedom to move around. Three double bedrooms each with spacious private bathrooms, air conditioning and fitted wardrobes each with plenty of space for extra storage. This villa is set in beautifully maintained gardens all around the property. At the rear you will find a feature pond containing several fish with covered pergola. A separate pergola has a tiled floor, ideal for relaxing during the warmer weather. We recommend early viewing on this stunning property. There are three bars/restaurants within walking distance, The Bowling Club bar (5 minutes) , New Yorks Sports Bar and Restaurant (10 minutes) and a small Spanish bar (10 minutes). The nearest village is Balsicas (5-10 minutes drive) which has a train station, banks, petrol station including a car wash, supermarket, dentist, auto mechanics and tyre supplier, ironmonger as well as several bars and restaurants. Several golf resorts within a 15 minute radius and several local primary schools. There is an English language secondary school just 10 minutes drive away. Please contact one of our specialist agents for more information.
