Entering the property through a private gate, you walk onto the terrace area that leads up to the house. The terrace area is a great place to sit, relax and enjoy the summer nights. Entering the house you come into the living room which is very spacious and has plenty of room for extra furniture. Off from the living room, you have the kitchen which is also very spacious and has room for plenty for extra storage and is easy to move around in. There is also a big utility room and courtyard towards the back. Through the hallway, you have three double bedrooms each with a great amount of space to put extra furniture, they also all have fitted wardrobes and extra space for storage. The bathroom is located between the bedrooms which give easy access for everyone and is fitted with a shower unit. Back into the kitchen, you have the entrance to the lift which takes you down to the lower level, the lower level has a sizable garage and an extra room which is used as a gym/games room. This property has a lovely park located opposite which is great for morning or evening walks, the park also has a small cafe located in the center giving you a lovely local place to sit and enjoy a cup of coffee.
