Family Chalet with charm in the area of Santa Lucia in Denia. It is located in a residential green area surrounded by schools. A very short distance from the beach and the urban center. It is located on a flat plot of 1153m², of which 343m² correspond to the house. The villa is composed of 5 spacious and bright rooms with fitted wardrobes, equipped kitchen, 4 interior and exterior bathrooms, located on the porch and a nice living-dining room. It has a large well-kept garden with paved areas, a very sunny pool to cool off when you want, a cozy porch to relax and a practical barbecue.

The property also has its own water well, basement of 40m² that can be used to store fixtures, gasoil central heating throughout the house and air conditioning to be cool in summer. It is perfect for children or for a family with several children because of the large size of the plot and the garden. Come and meet her without compromise. We will wait for you!
