This rustic style villa is built on a south/west facing hillside and offers beautiful mountain and sea views. The property forms part of the mature and well established country estate El Madronal. El Madronal is an exclusive gated community, which is in a pine and cork forested area. It is situated on the Ronda Road, with both tennis and golf nearby, just 5 minutes from San Pedro de Alcántara and 10 minutes from Puerto Banús. The entrance is through a tranquil patio with stunning views and a beautiful rustic style door that leads to the high ceiling hall. It includes a living room with fireplace and separate dining room, modern design kitchen with breakfast bar and separate breakfast room, guest toilet, entertainment room, fitness area and plenty of storage space. Separated from the main house is the guest apartment. There are terraces all around the house, large garden with 400m² artificial grass swimming pool with lounge area and a gated access road with a lawn of fruit trees.
