An off plan apartment complex known as SYZYGY - The Residences In Estepona consists of 47 two & three bed apartments. This ground floor apartment enjoys views over the countryside and to the mountains from the open plan living & kitchen/dining areas through the large doors and windows. There is also a large terrace space and private garden with a combined size of 130m² of outdoor space. Finishes are modern, high end in light colours internally with a south west orientation. The gardens are landscaped in a relaxing Japanese 'Feng Shue' style to make time spent in the communal areas outside a relaxing experience. To add to this there are plans for a roof top chill out bar & restaurant open to residents to enjoy with views over the countryside, mountains and sea beyond. The pool will be decked with space for sunbeds around it. All apartments come with underground parking a storage room included in the price. Due for completion in April 2018.
