Address: Valle Romano, Malaga

An off plan plot & build villa project in a highly sought after location on the golf resort of Valle Romano, a frontline golf plot with views to the lake, golf course and sea beyond. The villa project would allow for a south-south east orientation and as the plot is mainly flat there would be no need for retaining walls keeping building costs to a minimum. The build ratio means a villa similar to the one shown of 189m² living with covered 36m² terrace can be built for the budget. A basement underbuild could also be added if required to increase the total build - not included in the price shown. Price shown includes price of the plot and the build of the property but NOT the relevant taxes and costs for the project itself which are still to be added.
