Address: La Alcaidesa, Cadiz

A spacious villa built on the most elevated part of La Alcaidesa providing panoramic views of the whole area, with golf sea, mountain and the coastlines of both the Costa del Sol and the Atlas mountains. The property was built by the current owners to a good specification on one of the most sought after plots in the area. The villa itself consists of 340m² of living area, 54m² terraces and a very large basement enough for 6 cars as well as 3 storage areas for various requirements. The driveway is also large enough for 5 more cars. There is a nice flat plot the pool is located just next to the terrace off of the lounge/dining area. The solar panels provide heating for the house water, pool & central heating system. With the local towns & Gibraltar, the beach and the Links golf course so close by this property is an ideal home for both residents and holiday owners alike.
