Aldea Blanca, Puerto Banus, Marbella Is a fantastic development of privately owned apartments. It comprises around 200 individual units ranging in size from studio up to four bedrooms. All the properties have been built 'house in house' and all have the advantage of views, whether of tropical gardens or gardens to sea. The landscaping everywhere is a delight with a very low ratio of land to build. The feeling of space everywhere is very apparent. There is a large swimming pool in the first phase and further spectacular swimming pools throughout the development.
