Address: Bel Air, Malaga

This top floor duplex apartment in Bel Air located next to the tennis club. Has excellent views from both the front south facing terrace and roof solarium which has panoramic views to the sea, mountains and countryside in between. The 2 main bedrooms are spacious and the lounge is bright with natural light from the front and back of the property. The main bathroom has been refurbished although the kitchen is still as original. One benefit of the property is the large solarium with exclusive, private use for the apartment which also has additional rooms built being used as storage, an office and a third bedroom respectively. The development has a sunny garden with pool area and parking is outside in the street.
