Address: Valle Romano, Malaga

An excellent sized plot to build a large villa on the golf resort of Valle Romano. With a south west orientation the plot is ideal for a house to be built with pool that can enjoy the sun right till the end of the day offering beautiful sunsets. As the plot is mainly flat there would be no need for retaining walls keeping building costs to a minimum. The build ratio of 23% means a villa of 336m² plus terrace can be built. A basement underbuild could also be added if required.
