This villa has its own lush pine forest, this one-of-a-kind property located right next to La Sella Golf Resort in a most sought after area allows you to enjoy beautiful views over the fairways with the spellbinding Montgo massif behind and the Mediterranean sea on the horizon. Built on two levels the upper and main floor is hosting the spacious and bright common areas. The hall's staircase separates the huge lounge with access to the sun terrace and pool area from a lovely modern kitchen integrated in the ample dining area with balcony. A guest toilet and a functional cabinet are next to the hall. Downstairs is the stunning, generously sized master bedroom featuring a walk-in cabinet, en-suite bathroom and a wonderful terrace. Furthermore, there are two more bedrooms next to a bathroom. This glorious villa radiates casual elegance, peace and complete privacy as it is set amid a lush Mediterranean greenery benefiting from the amenities and excellent infrastructure the La Sella Golf Resort is renowned for. The price includes all interior finishes including carpentry lacquered in white, the cleaning of the plot and earthfillings of its front side up to pool level, and the construction of an open parking place.
