Discover this splendid condominium at the heart of Berlin, surrounded by wonderful architecture of foreign embassies and cultural landmarks of German capital. The project has six buildings, each with a unique facade and interior design. The exclusive and luxurious materials are used in the construction of buildings: natural stone, wood, and masonry. The design of the project takes inspiration from the surrounding with its old townhouses and monumental buildings like the Markisches Museum in the Kollnischer Park. The project dissolves in the environment, creating a meaningful connection between tradition and modernity. The area is very well connected to public transportation: the train stations Heinrich-Heine-Strasse (U8), Markisches Museum (U2) and Jannowitzbrücke (Train and Subway) are nearby. Located on the third floor, this one-bedroom apartment has a living size of ca. 48,00 m². The floor plan consists of an entrance hall, a spacious living room with an open kitchen and access to a storeroom and a bathroom with a bathtub.
