The beautiful coastal town of Torre del Mar is situated 28 km from Málaga. The town boasts a wide variety of shops, bars and restaurants and the fabulous beach stretches to the adjoining fishing village of Caleta de Vélez. The promenade also offers a cycle lane and measures 3.5kms and is lined with chiringitos/beach bars/restaurants). Torre del Mar holds a large weekly market on Thursdays and Baviera golf course is located between Torre del Mar and Caleta de Velez.

This coastal town is predominantly Spanish, whose main residents live permanently throughout the year, enjoying a bustling town which is open all year round.
