- a landscaped garden with a veg garden, a greenhouse and a poly-tunnel
- ADSL, WIFI
- DPE (energy rating) E , GES (gaz emissions) A

The House (129 m2):

Ground floor (110 m2 approximately):

- a north-facing entrance hall with tiled floor, opening into the living/dining room (2 m2)
- a large living/dining room with tiled floor, wood burning stove, French windows leading to the veranda, a door to the west-facing garden and a small north window (52 m2)
- off the living area is a newly fitted modern kitchen with tiled floor and south-east facing window (11 m2)
- three bedrooms with tiled floor (11m2, 11m2, 11m2)
- a large family bathroom with both full-sized bath and separate shower, washbasin and wc, tiled floor, north-facing window (6m2)
- a separate loo with washbasin and north-facing window (2,5 m2)
- a south-east facing veranda leading from the living area to the pool area (16 m2)
- an inside staircase leading down to the basement

Lower ground floor basement (50 m2 approximately)*:

- a north-facing entrance into the double garage (25 m2)
- a laundry room with hot water tank, tiled floor and north facing window (6,5 m2)
- a shower room with shower, wash basin and wc (4 m2)
- a storeroom/wine cellar (10 m2)

*This floor could easily make a separate apartment or gite if required

Outside, to the south-east is the pool area and to the west side a small greenhouse and adjoining poli-tunnel. Also on the west side of the garden is a raised-bed vegetable garden.

Around the house are the grounds, a mix of grass and flowering shrubs and mature trees with mature hedges on the boundary. The grounds are completely enclosed with two sets of gates, one on the east side leading to the pool area, and one on the north side leading to the garage.

A spacious and light house in good condition and well-maintained, in a peaceful location with lovely views around 2 km from the market town of Gourdon with all amenities, restaurants, hospital, doctors, supermarkets and do-it-yourself and garden shops... and in easy reach of all the popular tourist spots of the Lot and the Perigord Noir. Ready-to-move-in !
