An oasis in the heart of Coco del Mar one of the city's most prestigious residential areas. The 12-story building offers the amenities and lifestyle found in top resorts with a rooftop yoga studio, complete gym, sauna, and solarium. Designed by the prestigious architect firm Mallol Mallol, Coco del Mar offers an atmosphere of tranquility and relaxation minutes from the top restaurants, nightclubs, financial institutions, and shops, as well as Parque Omar, the largest park in the area. Developed by Grupo Los Pueblos, one of the most respected developers in Panama City with more than 32 years of experience in delivering quality projects. Was specifically designed to cultivate a healthy and relaxed lifestyle at attractive prices for investors, young families, and executives. Designed around two tall central atriums which fill the building with natural light. The atriums include co-working areas supporting the independent business. Every amenity has been carefully planned to support the work, live, and play lifestyle in one of the city's great neighborhoods.
